

UNITE THE RESISTANCE

PLYMOUTH CONFERENCE

Fight for Social Welfare!
Saturday 14th January

After the fantastic success of the Trade Union strike day on 30th November, we have called a Conference in Plymouth to continue to Unite the Resistance. We aim to have a range of local, regional and national speakers, and to bring together trade unions, students, claimants and community activists, to build the unity that made N30 possible, and to make sure that we don't lose momentum in our fight to defend pensions and to resist the cuts.

The conference will take place between 10:30 and 16:00 on Saturday 14th January, Plymouth.

November 30th 2011 was the biggest strike in the UK since the General Strike of 1926.

29 unions took part and 2.6 million workers were on strike - including 400,000 NHS workers and 90% of workers in Revenues and Customs. 18,342 schools were closed. All the courts at the Royal Courts of Justice were closed and two-thirds of the courts at the Old Bailey were unable to sit. 20,000 fewer passengers flew on 30/11.

Over 1,000 rallies were held across the country and 500,000 marched. In the far South West, 2,500 marched in Plymouth, 3,000 in Truro and 4,000 in Exeter. The question now is, what's next?

Come and discuss the way forward to resist the assault of the Tories and Corporations.

Called by Plymouth Fightback Against the Cuts and supported by the Plymouth Trades Union Council

Key note speakers from trade unions and campaign groups. Topics include the Future of the NHS, the Fight for Pensions, Disability Rights, Direct Action Protests, and debates on "What does Social Justice look like?" and "How Can Strikes Win?"
